RETREAT OVERVIEW

In the Reformation time, liturgies served as site of both conservation and critique. Liturgies do this still today. In a working seminar style, Rev. Dr. Jan Schnell (religious ethicist and liturgical theologian) will present liturgical patterns of resistance and renewal, draw out participants' experiences and commitments to the good God is doing in the world, and guide composition of liturgical components that will inform our final worship service together and be free and ready for the group to take into each of their local settings.

FACILITATOR BIO

Rev. Dr. Jan Schnell, assistant professor of liturgics at Wartburg Theological Seminary, teaches courses in worship along with other electives and integrated courses. Jan brings a rich experience in congregational ministry, including leadership of JustChurch, a worshipping assembly in Iowa City, and a strong commitment to social justice. In her teaching, preaching and research, she is committed to interdisciplinarity, and pedagogies or methodologies that recognize the inherent value and wisdom that each participant brings. A conference speaker and preacher, she delights in God's spirited movement in the fabric of our daily lives and on the streets of our public spaces. Prof. Schnell and her family live dependent on solar energy on an acreage where they steward and help restore a natural Iowa prairie.
